

Residential or Commercial long distance moves are defined as spanning an area beyond 50 miles. Dumbo Moving & Storage is licensed by the Federal Motor Highway Safety Administration for interstate relocations.

Our trailer drivers and long distance moving crews are carefully selected, and comprehensively trained in safety driving practices along with appropriate moving procedures.

When choosing Dumbo Moving & Storage you can be confident that your belongings are fully protected, that we are precise in timing your delivery, and that we keep you constantly informed at any point of the way.

We also offer storage facilities used for the safe keeping of your belongings when moving long distance with us.

Moving overseas and don't want to handle all that paperwork and custom- clearance in addition to taking care of your move? Dumbo Moving & Storage will do all that for you! We offer full packing, storage, delivery, and we will handle all required documentation and clearances.